Considered as an up-to-date operatic extravaganza of the more pretentious sort, "The Isle of Bong Bong" B. C. Whitney's sparkling musical surprise, which is to be the offering, at the Morton Theatre, Madisonville, Wednesday, Nov. 29, will prove a veritable revelation to the most discriminating playgoer. John W. Ransome heads the all star cast, including Alice Yorks, Anna Boyd, John W. Hendricks, Walter Charles Parcor and other well known favorites. The chorus numbers 60 people.

Dixon and Fields in their latest comedy success "Hans an' Nix" claim a whirlwind of laughs from the audience, and the curtain falls. Nothing that might add to the production has been neglected. The principals have been chosen for their adaptability for their parts. The "Show Girls" and feminine chorus, comprise graceful girls, attractive in face and figure, and costumed with rare skill for artistic and brilliant effects. The finales of the three acts are marvels in the way of stage pictures. Nothing like them has ever been attempted before and, undoubtedly, the attendant expense will deter other road managers from imitating.

The scenic production and accessories of "The Isle of Bong Bong" are said to be elaborate in the extreme. Manager B. C. Whitney has excelled all previous endeavors in this field, and a tremendous all star cast for this, his largest and most ambitious offering, which comes to the Morton Theatre, Madisonville, Nov. 29. The inimitable dialect comedian John W. Ransome, who won international renown as the creator of the "Cinemobile Brewer" in "The Prince of Pilsen," has the leading role; sprightly and vivacious Alice Yorks is the prima donna; Anna Boyd, John W. Hendricks, Walter Ware, Charles Parcor and other well known stage celebrities are numbered among the principals. The chorus consists of 60 people mostly girls.

REAL ESTATE SALE.

The advance reports of the new musical gayety, "Hans an' Nix," by the famous original German comedy team of Dixon and Fields, and an extraordinarily strong cast of players, is indeed flattering to the management. The performance contains a whole lot of good things.

Mr. Dean has handled some prize pigs this week and his shop bears that only appearance left by the passage of fat shoats with their clothes off. Rev. J. F. Story brought in two pigs, eleven months of age on the date of their execution, that netted $22 pounds. Wm. Bradley contributed the big one. His shoat was two years old and weighed 40 pounds in his bare feet and without his overcoat.

Last Sunday morning while a freight train was making up, preparatory to going south, the plaintive cry of a kitten was heard, and as soon as the cars became still the bystanders began searching for the author of that pitiful cry. They found the kitten clinging on the trucks under the cars and rescued it. As soon, however, as the cat was released, and the train was in motion, it ran under the ears, jumped upon a truck and began its southern trip. This is the first time, perhaps, that a cat has "hobbed" on the L. & N.

Crenshaw has a few suits of men's clothes he is closing out at cost. Give him a call.

MINING NOTES.

Jno. Harland, Jr., of Isley, was here Sunday visiting relatives and friends.

Rob. Gordon, of this place, attended the funeral of Mr. Feiler at Grapevine Sunday.

Mr. Sherman Blackwell, of Clay, has secured a contract for the erection of fifty houses at Wheatencroft and will also build ten at Baker's mines. The buildings are to be built by the West Kentucky Coal Company for the convenience of the men in their employ.

Messrs. Jno. Colbert and Floyd Laffoon, of this city, were in Madisonville Thursday night on business.

The East Kentucky Coal Co., of Boyd county, has been incorporated at Frankfort with $1,000 capital stock. The stock will be increased in a short time to $100,000.

One night last week at Barnsley mines Riley Williams, colored, cut 54 rooms. The following night Auburn Williams, a champion white machine runner, cut 54 rooms in the same mine. This last means an earning of $6.00 for the cutter and $4.12 for the hostler. These are record runs of course, but the foreman says it indicates that the cutters should be able to cut three rooms to the shift regularly, which would earn $8.00 for the cutter and $2.25 for the hostler. Barnsley has thrown down the gauntlet to the other mines of Hopkins and believes these records cannot be beaten.

Several extra freight trains were run on the Providence branch Sunday to handle the output from the various mines on that part of the Henderson division. The mines on the branch are loading a great amount of coal this year and are rapidly becoming an important factor in the Western Kentucky field.

London, Ky., Nov. 20.—Jas. N. Thompson, president of the Standard Coal Company, and his associates sold their entire interests, including franchises at Viva, in this county, about six miles north of here today, to C. S. Lord, formerly of Ohio, but now of Knoxville, for $20,000 cash.

The Standard Coal mines are among the best paying mines in the county. Mr. Lord, the purchaser, has large coal mining interests at various points in Eastern Kentucky and Tennessee.

Thos. Causier, of the mechanical department of the St. Bernard Mining Co., has accepted a position with the L. & N. R. R., in the transportation department.

Dan Sullivan, of this place, made a business trip to Madisonville Saturday.

The motor that has been in service at No. 11 mine for some time, was sent to the South Diamond mine, near Mortons Gap, this week. A new motor has been installed at No. 11 and it is giving satisfaction to the parties interested.

Electrician Nollie Umstead was a busy man during the past week, making preparations for the installment of the new motor at the No. 11 mine.

Thanksgiving Service.

A Thanksgiving service will be held at the M. E. Church, South, on next Thursday evening, Nov. 30th at 7:30 o'clock. The service will take the place of the prayer meeting held on that night. A cordial invitation is extended to all who may desire to attend on this night, and each person is requested to bring a thank offering to be placed in the baskets which will be passed for that purpose.

Subscribe for your home paper.

The annual output of olive oil in California is about 150,000 gallons; of pickles 230,000 gallons. The imports to the country of oil amount to about 1,250,000 gallons per year and of pickles to 2,116 gallons. The olive was introduced into California 135 years ago, which is a bad showing for use of native oil, especially when it is acknowledged to be the superior of all foreign oils.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar. Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great popularity and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the general. These various imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best for coughs and colds. Sold by Jno. X. Taylor.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, South, will meet with Mrs. Deas Monday afternoon. Let every lady of the church consider herself a member and all that can attend this meeting, as there is much work to do.

VALUABLE INFORMATION

Each man has a chance in a lifetime to reach the point of success, and this opportunity is offered in Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana, the three great agricultural and timber States traversed by the Iron Mountain Route. There land can be purchased at from $3.50 to $20.00 per acre, that is producing from $30. to $50. per acre each year, in cotton, corn, hay, sugar cane, fruit and vegetables. The wild game and wild life growing in this district have proven a record breaker—six crops each year or six tons per acre at $3.50 per ton on local markets, what is produced. All that is necessary for the business man is to look over the situation personally, as the country speaks for itself, and on the first and second Tuesdays of each month the agents will be in town, offered at rate of one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip. Four daily trains from St. Louis, Freighting wheat and we will furnish free descriptive literature and further information regarding our wonderful opportunities.

THE CENTURY FOR 1906

Mrs. Ward's New Novel Begins in the November Issue and Will Run Several Months.

The lavish promises of a year ago were splendidly fulfilled in The Century during 1905—true verse and essays, its pictures, its fiction, its armchair tales, its interest in domestic life, went beyond all promise and expectation. The feast in 1906 will be even richer than in 1905.

Mr. Ward's new novel by Mrs. Humphrey Ward, "Fenwick's Castle," a new humorous serial by the creator of "Susan Clegg," and short stories by the best known and popular writers of the day. There will be authoritative accounts of such wonderful powers as our construction of the Panama Canal, W. S. Harwood will tell us "Savannah's Crop," the director of Cornell's School of Agriculture, Prof. George C. Shantz, the most important problem of the modern man and the farm. There will be many other articles of kindred value and interest. "Law and Lawyer," the last career of Lincoln will be neglected, in the opinion of authorities like President McKinley and the late President Roosevelt, in the December Century.

Frederick Trevor Hill has made an exhaustive study of this phase of the American life and development, with the assistance of the Illinois historians and officers of the Illinois Historical Society; and his series of papers will be rich in new and valuable information. Fiction in 1906 will be more beautiful, in 1906 than ever before—Howard Chandler Christy's pictures of the American West, in full color, will be among the features. It will contain the greatest of the best American literature, art and thought.

Interest in the first chapters of Mrs. Ward's new novel and the beautiful November number.

WHO CREATES PREJUDICE?

"Oh, no, the Hustler has nothing against Earlinton, whatever, and THE BEE should cease trying to work up prejudice between Earlinton and Madisonville." — Judge Givens in the Madisonville Hustler.

This is the cracker Judge Givens ties on to the end of an editorial in the Madisonville Hustler and by which he endeavors to cover his own culpability in this attempt to lay at the door of THE BEE the absurd charge of working up prejudice between Earlinton and Madisonville. This cracker is put on the shelf of the Judge's belated reply to THE BEE's request of October 26th asking him to specify what towns in Hopkins county had been an expense to the county in connection with the smallpox epidemics in the past, as seemed clearly the inference intended to be drawn from the editorial utterance of the Judge to which THE BEE called attention first on October 26th, some days before the election. This utterance from Judge Givens' pen was published by THE BEE at that time has been published once since in these columns and is now again published, all in order that misquotation or misapplication may not rightfully be charged against THE BEE. The paragraph, about which the Judge says THE BEE is entirely mistaken, reads as follows:

"But next year the county will be situated in a state of disease and there will be plenty of funds available for road work, that is, unless smallpox breaks out among the republicans of certain towns of the county."

THE BEE called the Judge's attention on October 26 to the wrong impression his utterance was creating and asked him to specify what towns had been a burden to the county in smallpox epidemics. If he did not mean that Earlinton or any mining town of Hopkins county should suffer in the eyes of the readers of the Madisonville Hustler through the hurtful impression they were getting from this insidious editorial utterance, he had some days and several issues of the Madisonville Hustler in which to do the "square" thing and explain away this hurtful impression that was finding lodgment prior to election in the minds of partisans inflamed by a political campaign.

But he didn't, and, as THE BEE later prophesied would be, the Judge attempted no sort of excuse or explanation until after the election had passed and the minds of partisans needed, for the present, no further inflaming.

Now that the Judge finally realizes he must say something, he declares that THE BEE is all wrong and that the Hustler did not mean anything derogatory. And he admonishes that "THE BEE should cease trying to work up prejudice between Earlinton and Madisonville."

Truth to say, THE BEE has been raising a little sand with Judge Bud Givens. And THE BEE, together with many citizens, have understood that Judge Bud considered himself Hopkins County; but THE BEE had not, until now it finds from his own veritable lips, that Judge Bud is also the City of Madisonville.

It pays to advertise in THE BEE.

RAILROAD RATES and THE CONSUMER

In 1903 the Interstate Commerce Commission summarized the capitalization of the railroads of the United States thus:

Stock..... $ 6,155,556,029

6,444,451,228

Total R.R. capital..... $ 12,599,990,256

Owned by railroads..... 10,281,391,953

Net R.R. capital..... 10,281,398,303

For the year when the gross income from operation was..... $ 1,900,486,907

One-half of this was paid into the fund..... $ 950,243,498

Interest on fund..... $ 277,891,200

Dividends..... 166,176,580

Or a total paid security holders..... $ 444,067,700

In 1903 there were 173,221,278,908 of tons hauled one mile at the average rate of 763 mills per ton per mile, or a fraction more than 3% of a cent. A reduction in the rate of only 1 mill per ton per mile would mean a reduction in earnings of $173,221,278,908, putting the dividends entirely, and reducing the amount applicable to payment of interest by $7,044,723. In other words, the $444,067,700 paid into the fund in 1903 represented a rate of 3.58 per cent on the gross, or 4.32 per cent on the net capitalization. If these payments had been subjected to a reduction of $173,221,278,908, representing a reduction of only 1 mill per ton in the rate, the amount applicable for payment to security holders would have been but $70,346,516, or at a rate of 2.16 per cent on the gross, or 2.65 per cent on the net capitalization.

To make it clearer, rates are not published or quoted at so much per ton per mile, but at so much per ton of cargo, and at a given rate of cents per hundred pounds from point of shipment to destination, consequently the illustration will be the better understood by making use of the every day terms in connection with rates.

As above stated, in 1903 173,221,

278,903 tons were hauled 1 mile and as the average haul was 1761 miles, a simple calculation gives 1,319,751,

173 tons hauled the average distance of 1814 miles, but as rates are based on the 100 pounds, let us change that tonnage to correspond, which as shown in 26,395,623,460 cwt. (or hundred weight) transported the average distance of 1814 miles. A reduction of only 1 cent per 100 pounds in the rate would mean $253,856,291 less in receipts, consequently that much less for payment to security holders, wiping out the dividends, and reducing by $97,770,643 the amount applicable to payment of interest, or leaving for payment to security holders $18,111,561, and that represents a rate of only 1.43 per cent on the gross, or 1.75 per cent on the net capitalization. Just think of the largest industrial interest in the country returning but 1.43 per cent on the investment, to its security holders! And who are these security holders?

The last annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission shows that the number of railroad stockholders as of June 30, 1904, was 327,351, and as the holding of railroad bonds is even more general, it is reasonable to presume that the total number of stockholders and bondholders will approach 700,000, which may be said to represent the direct security holders, many of whom are corporations. Complete statistics from 6 states, and incomplete reports from 30 states show the savings institutions of this country as having 7,305,228 depositors, with total deposits of $2,935,204,845, and owning $571,031,277 worth of railway securities, representing 19.45 per cent of the entire deposits. A simple calculation will show that the average amount to the credit of each of these 7,305,228 depositors is but $401.60, and the amount of the securities for this average depositor, 19.45 per cent, or $78.15 depends upon the stability of railway property.

Fire and life insurance companies hold $45,880,088 of railway securities, and this amount added to that held by the saving institutions makes a total of $1,416,920,315, nearly one and one-half billion dollars vitally interested in the successful development and operation of the railroads, and held by savings institutions, life and fire insurance companies and by 17,000,000 holders of life insurance policies, and to possibly 10,000,000 additional holders of fire insurance policies, giving a total of, say, 34,305,228 individuals who are beyond question indirect security holders who would be affected adversely by this reduction in freight rates of only 1 cent per 100 pounds.

Again, reports of the Interstate Commission show that complaints as to excessive freight rates have been received from practically every state and territory, and upon every class of freight, for instance:

Flour, fish, canned goods, potatoes, tomatoes, melons, fruits, cabbage, onions, beans, butter, sugar, coffee, tea, cream, eggs, bacon,

wine, whiskey, carbonated beverages, clothing, dry goods, cotton goods, hosiery, boots and shoes, cotton, wool, cattle, sheep, hogs, horses, corn, hay, oats, rye, wheat, machinery, implements, vehicles, paint, leather, hides, cement, brick,

wire, shingles, lumber, fertilizer,

furniture, tankard, piling, fertilizer, telegraph poles, and many other articles.

Now, advocates of rate legislation, in their appeal for your sympathy, say that it is not the consumer, or the consignee, who is the direct sufferer by reason of excessive rates, but that it is the consumer, and that the relief of the consumer is the end, for which they strive.

We have seen the disastrous effects to railroad security holders of a reduction in the rates of only 1 cent per 100 pounds. Does any sensible person believe that the consumer could purchase the articles consumed at a lesser price by reason of such a reduction, when most of the railroads are on the consignee, but 2 cents per barrel on flour, 2 cents on a case of canned goods, 2 cents on a case of clothing, or 3 cents on a suit of furniture?

Certainly not; nor would a proposition of a 1 cent reduction in rates be acceptable to him, if such a proposition should be made. He would demand a greater, one that would bring relief to him, to the consumer. And who is the consumer? Is not everyone of the 34,

305,228 indirect security holders mentioned above a consumer? And should he receive a reduction in rates for, as valid as a customer, of even 1 cent per 100 pound, which as shown, does not relieve, there is no getting around the fact that he very severely impairs the stability of the institutions which are in trust, savings, savings and his family's future welfare?

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

"No, sir. You cannot palm off any substitutes on me. I've been using August Flower since I was a boy, and I'll have no other."

Twenty million bottles of August Flower are sold in the United States since its introduction. That is the reason it is still growing. Isn't that a fine showing of success? Can't it prove that August Flower has had a marked influence in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the worst enemies of health and happiness? Does it not affect the best evidence that August Flower is a specific for stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it is the best of all liver regulators?

August Flower has a wonderful record of over 20 years curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

Tinted Lungs.

One of the exhibits in an English anatomical museum is a collection of three lungs preserved in alcohol. On one hand is an exhibit almost pure white, while the third is jet black, the one between being a dirty gray.

The first was taken from an Eskimo who all his life had inhaled the pure air of his northern home. The black lung was from a man who had spent years in the production of coal. The third was from the body of a London man, and the tint was produced by the inhalation of the soot carried in the air.

It is a certain fact that the lungs of the miner were in a more healthy state than those of the city dweller, since the grit in his tissues was pure coal dust, while the discoloration of the other was due not alone to soot, but to the dust of a city's streets composed of a thousand and one deleterious elements.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodal Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy, but it is the best tonic you can eat, but because it is a "L. V. the digestive apparatus" that is the trouble, it cures the disease-building disease. It cures indigestion, relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of Indigestion.

The guarantee of the right of habeas corpus and "inviolability of the person" sweeps away at a single stroke the dreadful system of secret arrest, secret trial and secret deportation in Russia. It robs the minister of the interior and his police of their terrors. With free speech and the right of association and union, political parties may be formed, and the people may be allowed to live in the open. Nothing is said about trial by jury, but this new parliament will have power to provide for that in the near future.

Constitution.

Health is absolutely impossible, if Constitution be present. Many serious cases of ill health and kidney complaint have been cured by secret constitution. Such a deplorable condition is unnecessary. Nothing the Matter With Kentucky. Kentucky has 9,500 manufacturing enterprises with a capital of $15,165,845, showing an increase in number during the past year of 1,015 with an increase in capital of $27,446,508.

Kentucky has 234,067 farms, valued at $471,045,556, an increase during the past decade of 55,403, with an added valuation of $42,875,392.

Kentucky has 1,000,000 people spending money last year, not taking into account money received in salaries, wages, interest on money loaned, or dividends on stocks and sales of real estate, the sum of $268,523,092, while the farmers of Kentucky received from sales of two crops alone—corn and tobacco—the princely sum of $50,000,000 in round numbers.

Kentucky stands in relation to the other States of the South fourth in population, third in manufacturing, third in percentage of farms improved, third in homes owned by the people, second in school attendance, second in schools and third in value of farm property, while she is tenth in area of territory. There is nothing the matter with Kentucky. The State is fully in line with the other States of the South, and these have been shown to be abreast of all the rest of the country.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

MOTION TO KILL.

Eighty Per Cent of Union Miners Present at Meeting Voted to Slay Non-Union Men.FEARFUL TESTIMONY GIVEN BY MEMBER OF UNION IN TENNESSEE.

Whitwell, Tenn., Nov. 18.—Starting testimony was given before the jury of inquest this evening by a former member of the miners' union, who testified that he was present at a meeting of the union since the strike had been on, and that Tobe Cox, also a member, made a motion that each union man take a gun and go and kill a "scab."

This witness declared that when this motion was put, there were about seventy-five men abe present, and about 80 per cent of those present voted in the affirmative. He says that President Bowden pleaded with the men not to resort to such lawless methods as this. Another witness described a letter which he said was written by District Board Member Cary to a friend at Dunlap, in which the witness declared Cary said in substance that "We went after them last night," and that "we are going to stop this coke pulling here."

This was said to have been written the next day after the first fusillade occurred, at which time a number of houses occupied by coke pullers were riddled with bullets, and two non-union men were shot.

Another witness testified to seeing long range rifles loaded with steel bolts in J. W. Walker's store. Gov. Cox and Gen. Hannah are expected here Monday.

A WORD WITH ADVERTISERS

A merchant who had two stores in a small town tried an experiment. He put a bargain counter in each store containing the same articles at the same prices. In the newspaper of one village he advertised the special sale counters. In the paper of the other he did not. In one month in the village where he did not advertise he sold $984 worth of goods. In the store where he did advertise he sold the same goods amounting to $1,724. In commenting on the result of the experiment the merchant says: "People who got the paper with the advertisement would pass by one store and drive for miles to the other one, for what they could have gotten at the same price in my store at their door but they did not know it was there."

GRAND LEADER

MORRIS KOHLMAN, Manager,

Madisonville, Kentucky.

"The Holy City."

The magnificent Biblical drama, "The Holy City" was presented at the Grand opera house last evening. The play is one of the strongest and most beautiful that has ever been witnessed in this city. It is the matchless story of Jesus at the time of his trial by Pontius Pilate, and the wonderful events of that period are told in a thrilling manner. The cast was one of uniform excellence. There was no particular star, but all were entitled to great credit, up the stars made. Rev. J. R. Wright, as John the Baptist, made the character seem almost as true as life. Arling Alcine as Malchus the nephew of Calaphas, was especially fine, while Sidney Blair as Marius, and Will F. McNulty in the part of Judas Iscariot, displayed a remarkable talent. Peter, Andrew and John the Beloved came in for their share of the applause. Miss Grace Peacock as Salome, the daughter of Herodias, proved a great favorite and her dance of the death before the king was weirdly, fascinating and beautiful.

Special mention should be made of the costumes and scenery. The crucifixion scene and Michael Angelo's great masterpiece, and the grand transformation of the Holy Sepulcher, were perhaps the finest that Peoria has ever seen. The play teaches a deep and lasting lesson and will not soon be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to have been present.—Peoria Journal, Sept. 24, 1905.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Fla., writes: My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption.

We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him.

This we repeat, since that we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

Thursday last a special car passed through here, attached to the Providence train, with 25 men in charge of an employment agent, to work on that road. The agent stated that the necessary number of laborers could not be secured in St. Louis and that he would probably have to go further and secure foreign labor to complete the work.
